Together with all the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto appertaining, as far as they may now or hereafter, during the term of this deed of trust, belong to or be used in connection with the occupancy of any building on the said land, or that may be hereafter erected thereon, all heating and ventilating apparatus, gas, electric light and other fixtures, whether attached to said premises or detached therefrom.

This conveyance, however, is in trust to secure the prompt payment of the aforesaid indebtedness, and any and all other indebtedness that may become due and owing to the beneficiary under the terms of this instrument and secured hereby, including the payment of any sum which may be expended or any indebtedness which may be incurred by the beneficiary herein, or any owner or holder of the note or notes secured hereby, in the payment of premiums for insurance, or in the payment of taxes on the said property, or in the payment of attorney's fees and/or other items expended in the protection of this security. If all indebtedness secured hereby shall be promptly paid when due and demandable, including all interest due thereon at the rate herein specified, then in that event this conveyance shall be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect. But if default is made in the payment of the note or notes secured hereby, or of any installment thereon, or of any installment of interest as provided herein, or in the payment when due and demandable of any other item of indebtedness secured hereby, or the interest thereon, or if default is made in any other covenant herein contained, then and in that event the entire principal sum secured hereby with all interest and charges accrued thereon, and all amounts secured hereby, shall, at the option of the beneficiary, or the owner or holder of said note or notes, be and become at once due and payable, and the trustee herein named, or his successor or successors, shall, at the request of the beneficiary, or at the request of any owner or holder of the note or notes secured hereby, sell said property and land, or a sufficiency thereof to satisfy the indebtedness aforesaid then unpaid. Such sale shall be made by giving notice of the time, place and terms of sale as required by Section 888 of the Mississippi Code of 1942 and amendments if any thereto, and the trustee shall make deed to the purchaser or purchasers. Should the beneficiary, or the owner or holder of the note or notes secured hereby be a corporation, then in such event a declaration of default to the trustee, and a request for sale hereunder, may be made by any officer thereof. If the land covered hereby is situated in two or more counties, or in two judicial districts of the same county, the trustee may sell the whole in any of the counties, or in either of the judicial districts of a county in which any part of the land lies. Out of the proceeds of sale the trustee shall first pay the cost of advertising and making the sale; and secondly, he shall pay whatever items may have been incurred and remain unpaid in the protection of this security; then he shall pay such of the items of indebtedness secured hereby as may be outstanding in the order of their maturity, and any balance remaining in his hands shall be delivered to the grantor, or to his proper representatives, agents or assigns.

If not prohibited by law or regulation, this Deed of Trust and all sums hereby secured shall become due and payable at the option of mortgagee and without notice to entrustor forthwith upon the conveyance of entrustor's title to all or any portion of said mortgaged property and premises, or upon the vesting of such title in any manner in persons or entities other than, or with, entrustor unless the purchaser or transferee assumes the indebtedness secured hereby with the consent of the beneficiary.

If this Deed of Trust is subject and subordinate to another Deed of Trust, it is hereby expressly agreed that should any default be made in the payment of any installment of principal or of interest on said prior Deed of Trust, the holder of this Deed of Trust may pay such installment of principal or such interest and the amount so paid with legal interest thereon from the time of such payment may be added to the indebtedness secured by this Deed of Trust and the accompanying note shall be deemed to be secured by this Deed of Trust, and it is further expressly agreed that in the event of such default or should any suit be commenced to foreclose said prior Deed of Trust then the amount secured by this Deed of Trust and the accompanying note shall become and be due and payable at any time thereafter at the sole option of the owner or holder of this Deed of Trust.

It is agreed and understood, by and between the parties hereto that this conveyance is executed and intended to be, and is hereby made subject to the following covenants, stipulations and conditions, all of which shall be binding upon the parties hereto and each of them.

First. In addition to the indebtedness specifically mentioned above, this conveyance shall also secure any and all extensions or renewals of the same, or any part thereof.

Second. The grantor will at all times during the continuance of this deed of trust keep the buildings and improvements on said premises insured against loss or damage by fire, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief in such reliable insurance company, or companies, as may be acceptable to the beneficiary, for the maximum amount of insurance obtainable, or in such amount as may be approved by beneficiary, and all policies covering the same shall contain the proper loss payable clause, making all losses, if any, payable to the beneficiary, his successors or assigns, and shall be delivered to the beneficiary herein, or to the owner or holder of the notes secured hereby as additional security. In case of loss and payment by any insurance company, the amount of insurance money so paid shall be applied either on the indebtedness secured hereby, or in rebuilding or restoring the damaged building, or buildings, or it may be released to the grantor, as the beneficiary may elect. In the event of loss the grantor shall immediately give notice by mail to the beneficiary who may make proof of loss if same be not promptly made by the grantor. Each insurance company involved is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to make payment for any loss directly to the beneficiary instead of to the grantor and the beneficiary jointly.

Third. The grantor will pay all taxes and assessments, general or special, which may be assessed against the said land, premises or property, or upon the interest of the trustee or the beneficiary therein, or upon this deed of trust, or the indebtedness secured hereby, without regard to any law heretofore enacted or that may hereafter be enacted imposing payment of the whole or any part thereof upon either the trustee or beneficiary, and further will furnish annually to the beneficiary certificates or receipts of the proper officer showing full payment of all such taxes and assessments.

Fourth. That the rents, issues and profits of all and every part of the property here conveyed are specifically pledged to the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured, and all obligations which may accrue under the terms of this instrument. Upon the maturity of the indebtedness hereby secured, either by lapse of time or by reason of any default as herein provided, or if at any time it becomes necessary to protect the lien of this conveyance, the beneficiary, or any owner, or holder of the notes secured hereby, shall have the right to forthwith enter into and upon the property hereinbefore described and take possession thereof, and collect and apply the rents, issues and profits thereon upon the indebtedness secured hereby, or may, if it is so desired, have a receiver appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction to collect and impound the said rents, issues and profits and after paying the expense of such receivership apply the balance thereof to the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby.

Fifth. The failure on the part of the grantor to keep and perform each, any, and all of the covenants and stipulations of this deed of trust, or the passage by the State of Mississippi of any law imposing payment of the whole or any portion of any of the taxes aforesaid upon the trustee or the beneficiary, or upon the rendering by any court of competent jurisdiction of a decision that the stipulation or provision herein covering the payment of taxes or assessments is legally inoperative, shall give to the beneficiary or to the owner or holder of the notes secured hereby the option to at once declare the entire principal sum hereby secured with all interest and charges thereon, and all other amounts secured hereby at once due and demandable and to have the property advertised and sold by the trustee herein named, or his successor or successors, in accordance with the provisions of this conveyance hereinbefore set out. But in case such default consists in the failure to keep the said property insured or to pay the taxes herein required, the beneficiary, or the owner or holder of the said secured notes, may procure said insurance and pay said taxes and assessments, or redeem the property from tax sale if it has been sold; and any and all sums paid in procuring said insurance or in paying said taxes or assessments or in redeeming said property from tax sale, together with interest thereon at the rate herein stipulated from the date the same shall have been paid, shall be covered by this conveyance and shall be due and demandable on the date of the maturity of the interest installment which may become due under the terms of this instrument next after such additional items of expense are made or incurred. In case the beneficiary or the owner or holder of said secured notes elects to advance insurance premium and/or taxes, the receipt of an agent of the insurance company or companies in which said insurance is placed shall, with respect to such insurance premiums, be conclusive evidence as between the parties to this conveyance of the amount and fact of payment thereof; and the receipt of the proper public official, shall with respect to the taxes and assessments, aforesaid, be conclusive as between the parties to this conveyance of the amount and validity of said taxes or assessments and of the fact of the payment thereof.

Sixth. The beneficiary, or any owner or holder of the note secured hereby, may at pleasure, without giving formal notice to the original or any successor trustee, or to the grantor herein, and without regard to the willingness or inability of any such trustee to act, or to execute this trust, appoint another person or succession of persons to act as trustee herein, and such appointee or substitute shall have all the powers in the execution of this trust as are vested in the trustee herein named. If the beneficiary, or the owner or holder of the note secured hereby, be a corporation, such appointment may be made by its president, vice-president, assistant vice-president, secretary or treasurer.

Seventh. In case of foreclosure and sale of the property covered hereby, the beneficiary, or any owner or holder of the notes secured hereby, shall have the same right to purchase at said sale as if a stranger to this instrument.

Eighth. Grantor covenants that the premises and property covered hereby will at all times be used in a good and husbandlike manner, for lawful purposes only, and that waste will not be committed or suffered to be committed thereon.

Ninth. Whenever in this deed of trust the context so requires, the singular number shall include the plural, and the plural the singular; holder of the note or notes shall be deemed to refer to and include the owner of the debt, and the word beneficiary shall at any and all times include and mean the then holder of the note or notes secured hereby.
